

DR. ANTONIA PANTOJA FELLOWSHIP, INC.

Invites you to attend

Est. 2002

Theater Fundraiser

A riveting story with catchy tunes you won't be able to get out of your head!

The rhythms of traditional Puerto Rican music and urban reggaetón collide in this song-driven rendition of the historic migration of Puerto Ricans to Hawaii. Adapted from Vivir del Cuento, by legendary writer and gay icon Manuel Ramos Otero. Aloha Boricua is a rich tribute to the lives of these men and women of the early 1900's who were offered paradise in the Pacific and were in for the surprise of their lives.
